RUDY ALFORD

Meet Your Instructor

Disaster Restoration Company Instructor

Rudy Alford worked for a large franchise firm in the Metro Atlanta area for several years and had a desire to assist others in the cleaning and restoration industry. He had already taken many certification courses over the years and decided to enter the world of training. Rudy already was an accomplished instructor teaching morals and ethics classes for insurance agents and adjusters. It took a few years, but Rudy became an IICRC approved instructor in 2015. He has taught hundreds of students while traveling coast to coast in the USA and internationally in Australia as well. He is also an IICRC triple master. Rudy has served on the IICRC Technical Advisory Committees (TAC) for the contents packing and moving certification course which is still under development.
